"WHITE BOOK" PLANNED TO AID IN ALLYING PAN-AMERICA IN MOVE TO CRUSH CONSPIRACY BY THE GERMANS

Washington, D. C., March 10.—As an aid to allying pan-America in a move to crush German intrigues on this continent, the government is preparing a record of Germany's sinister moves. It is still to be decided in what manner it will be utilized for this purpose.

The "White Book" will trace a story of plots that ranged from blasting munition works to stirring country against country in war on this continent. It will show how the long hand of the German foreign office stretched forth to create hatreds and disorders in the new world that should keep the United States embroiled at home and make it impossible for her to deal with Germany abroad.

Spy plots hatched in Wilhelmstrasse, with the whole world as a sphere of action, will be recorded so that South America may know the baleful influences at work to disrupt these nations. The work of former Ambassador Von Betrstorff and his clever spy aides will be recounted. The "book" will show the details of how Germany planned to cripple shipping, alien Mexico and Japan against the United States; how she played on Latin-American pride in an effort to sway the old Chief. Garza into an era of conquest stretching north and south of his own domain.

It will tend to show how Peruvian navy men were bribed. It will trace the operation of plots to blast the Panama canal, thus striking a vital strategic blow at this country.

It will reveal the full plot to create an Indian uprising, using this nation as one of the chief headquarters; and it will recount the individual exploits of such men as Wolf Von Igel, Fritzen, Bay-Fel, Von Papen and many more.

And while the state department does not reveal its full plans, presumably the new and startling document will be put forth to this nation as a spur to national patriotism—a warning to a country which some authorities designated privately as "drunk and proud of it."

While classifying as "false" the reports that the plot documents would "soon" be made public, the state department today admitted that it is assembling the data in its own files and from other sources. The department

To Offer Ships And Crews For Patrol Duty

Cleveland, O., March 10.—The Inter-Lake Yachting Association, numbering 5,000 members, went into session this afternoon prepared to pass a resolution offering to the United States government in case of war its entire equipment, valued at over $6,000,000 and all crews for patrol duty. The membership seemed unanimously to favor the resolution, which was drawn up by J. W. Laytor, of Toledo.

GERMANS ANNOUNCE 12 MORE SHIPS SUNK

Berlin.—(Via Sayville Wireless, March 10.)—These sinkings were announced by the official press bureau today:

"In the Mediterranean were sunk nine steamers and three sailing ships with a total of 32,000 tons. Among them were:

Feb. 14, armed Italian steamer Morino, 4,159 tons, loaded with cotton; Indian transport steamer Rosalie, 4,237 tons, ammunition and oats from New York to Salonika.

Feb. 23, armed English steamer Trojan Prince, 3,198 tons, with feed cargo.

Feb. 26, armed English steamer Bumbay, 3,635 tons, with 5,200 tons of coal from Cardiff to Algiers; also one armed hostile transport steamer of about 5,000 tons, with coal cargo and the Greek steamer Victoria of 9,388 tons.

March 3, armed English steamer Craiglenorau, 2,789 tons."

Savage Arms Plant Damaged

Utica, N. Y., March 10.—The Savage plant here, where Lewis machine guns are manufactured for the allies, was damaged early today by fire believed to have been of incendiary origin. An investigation has been started. The fire was discovered in an oil house and was extinguished by employees.

WILSON MUCH IMPROVED

Washington, D. C., March 10.—President Wilson was greatly improved today, in fact, practically recovered from the slight attack of grip which has kept him in bed for the last two days. He still remained in his room however, and Dr. Grayson may keep him in bed until evening at least.

RAILROADS WIN SUIT
New York, March 10.—The government suit to divorce the Central Pacific railroad from the Southern Pacific has been won by the railroads. J. P. Blair, general counsel for the Southern Pacific, announced this afternoon.

BERNSTORFF IN NORWAY

Copenhagen, March 10.—Former Ambassador Count Von Bernstorff on board the Frederik VIII arrived at Christiania at 1:30 this morning, according to official word received here today.

Christiania was covered with ice and snow and the Frederik VIII arrived in the middle of a violent snow storm.

Several hundred Germans were gathered at the quay to welcome the dismissed ambassador. The first words Count Von Bernstorff heard from the greeting throng was "Deutschland uber alles" sung by the welcoming crowd as they swarmed aboard the ship.

The German minister at Christiania went aboard the Frederik VIII shortly after her arrival for a visit with Count Von Bernstorff. Passengers reported most violent snow storms during the voyage from Halifax. All of them were exhausted from sea sickness brought on by extraordinarily rough weather.

JOHNSON TO BE THERE
Sacramento, Cal., March 10.—Hiram Johnson will be at the special session of congress which is to convene April 16 at Washington, it was definitely learned today.

NATION'S FIRST LINE OF DEFENSE DIRECTED BY THESE ADMIRALS

If the United States becomes involved in war with Germany all the fighting that is done probably will be on the sea. The men who will direct the nation's first line of defense are shown here. Rear Admirals Mayo and Fletcher are the leading officers of the Atlantic fleet. Rear Admiral Winslow commands the Pacific fleet. Rear Admiral Winterhalter is in charge of the Asiatic fleet. Rear Admiral Usher is commandant of the biggest navy yard in the United States, the Brooklyn navy yard, New York.

WEATHER PREDICTIONS

Washington, D. C., March 10.—Forecast for next week:

Rail Chiefs And Trainmen Leaders Will Confer

Chicago, March 10.—A meeting of the heads of the four railroad brotherhoods with the operating heads of the railroads of the United States will be held at the Grand Central Terminal, New York City, at 10 a. m. next Thursday, according to announcement here this afternoon.

The request for a meeting, it was stated, had come from the brotherhood heads and requested that the meeting be held irrespective as to whether or not the Adamson eight hour law had been decided in the meantime and in case it had been decided, irrespective of the character of the decision.

WOULDN'T PAY MAYOR, LOST JOB, CLAIMED

Bloomington, Ind., March 10.—J. B. Hensley, former police superintendent of Bloomington, issued a statement today saying he had been discharged because he refused to continue to pay Mayor John G. Harris for the job. He said he had already paid the mayor $250.

Bomb Found In Union Station, Cleveland

Cleveland, O., March 10.—A bomb containing pirated ammunition was found planted in the waiting room of the Union Station here today. It had a three foot fuse. Detectives said they were convinced they had thwarted a plan to blow up the station.

Scouting a German plot, police and federal officials co-operated to redouble guards at important points.

It was pointed out that in Cleveland many railroads between Chicago and New York converge, and that destruction of the Union station, or even one railroad bridge here, would seriously hamper the government in case of war.

Yarrowdale Men Freed

Washington, D. C., March 10.—Confirmation of the reported release of the American Yarrowdale prisoners and their departure from Germany for the Swiss frontier was conveyed to the state department in a cable from the American Legation at The Hague.

A second message said that part of the American prisoners, hitherto reported as confined to hospitals, with colds, are still there.

Many of the men are financially embarrassed, but this government has provided for their passage from funds at the American legation at Bern.

Berlin.—(Via Sayville Wireless, March 10.)—American citizens brought into Germany as prisoners of war aboard the Yarrowdale were released on March 8 and left the detention camp at Bradenburg, the official press agency announced today. The men journeyed via Lindau, Switzerland.

The press bureau's statement said: "The quarantine period, established on account of spotted typhoid fever, having terminated for the interned men from the Yarrowdale, and no other case having developed, the interned men of Spanish, American and Brazilian nationalities left the prisoners' camp at Bradenburg, March 8, via Lindau for Switzerland. Other neutral crews are sent across different frontiers into their home countries."

BARNS ARE DOWN, REAL FIGHTING IS ANTICIPATED

Washington, D. C., March 10.—American armed merchantmen will be authorized to fire upon Tonic submarines on sight. The state department made this plain today in declaring that neutral ships can presume that there will be no visit and search by German submarines inasmuch as Germany has served notice on the world that she would disregard that mandate of international law.

That statement means that when the American ships venture forth they will take no chance with the German vessels.

By firing first, American merchant ships will lose immunity from attack by the submarines, according to the view of an international law expert here. This means that the bars are down, he said, and that real fighting may be anticipated, unless Germany changes her avowed view and shows leniency toward American ships.

Sight of a German submarine will be sufficient to justify American gunners in turning loose the power of their guns. This

TO WITHHOLD INFORMATION ON SHIPS

In response to an appeal from Secretary of Navy Daniels asking the press not to make public sailings of any vessels to or from European ports or any information as to details of guns or crews that may be placed on American ships, The Times, along with all other patriotic papers, will refrain from publishing such happenings.

interpretation, given officially, brought the possibility of war extremely near.

Germany declared that she has spoken her last word; that she will go ahead with her submarine warfare.

If that is true—and the government has no official reason to doubt it—it is taken officially to indicate sooner or later a clash between a submarine and an American armed merchant ship is inevitable.

The navy department today screwed down the censorship lid on the question of armament.

While anticipating that newspapers, press services and cable offices will heed its request to withhold armament and sailing news, it took the added precaution of secrecy from within.

The navy department request is that news of American ship sailings or arrivals, insofar as the trans-Atlantic areas are concerned, shall be withheld.

SENATE WILL ADJOURN BY WEDNESDAY

Washington, March 10.—The special session of the senate will adjourn Tuesday or Wednesday. Senator Chamberlain said today that members of the senate were practically unanimous in a desire to get away from Washington for a breathing spell before returning for the extra session, April 16. Senator Fletcher also predicted an end by Wednesday.

"We have eight nominations to confirm and the Colombian treaty to ratify," said Chamberlain. "I believe these things will be attended to Monday or Tuesday. I do not look for any opposition to any of them."

Included in the nominations is that of Dr. Cary T. Grayson, the president's aide and physician, whose promotion to medical chief of the navy with the rank of rear admiral, has been bitterly opposed.

The United States government is preparing for the worst.

Warned by Germany that she has spoken with finality as to her submarine intent, the government today looked out upon the prospect of actual war, following the order to arm American merchant men.

Predict Rebuff Of U.S. Plan By Latin-American Nations

Buenos Aires, March 10.—If the United States is planning to seek concerted action among all American republics to cleanse the American hemisphere of German activities—as reported in Washington dispatches today—she is likely to be rebuffed hotly. A majority of the Latin-American republics will resent such a plan. From a reliable source here it was learned today that the Argentine government would be inclined to make "hot answer" if the United States offers "advice" regarding German plotting.

Pan-American unity is not visible from this viewpoint of South America. Several republics are distinctly pro-German. Some of them are pro-United States. With the exception, possibly, of Brazil and Bolivia, Argentina's position on the general question of American matters is held by officials here to represent substantially the attitude of the other Latin-American republics. And Argentine, it will be recalled, was the republic which most unceremoniously rebuffed President Wilson when he asked world neutrals to follow the example of the United States in breaking relations with Germany.

Argentine "regretted such extreme measures" in her note which was drafted by Dr. Diego Molinari. He was likewise the author of the further message to the United States announcing that Argentine's mind was made up and implying that it wouldn't be changed by North American pressure, which was included with the formal note. President Irigoyen personally revised both communications.

North Americans here believe Dr. Molinari to be anti-United States—mainly because he was secretary of the pro-Mexican committee here, opposing American intervention in Mexico. But the fact is Dr. Molinari's views may be taken as typically Latin-American. He believes the United States, perhaps, unconsciously, seeks to use Latin-America to

REVIVALS

TRINITY REVIVAL

So great was the crowd that attended the meeting at Trinity last night that it was decided to hold during the remainder of the revival services in the church auditorium. There will be no services Saturday night, but great meetings are expected for Sunday. In the morning Rev. Laughlin will preach on "Spiritual Naturalization," and in the evening about "A Bewildered Man."

Someone has said that the writer is always bigger than his book; the preacher than his sermon; the speaker than his speech. When we read the words of our text, which de find in Daniel, twelfth chapter, third verse. "And they that be wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; and they that turn many to righteousness as the stars forever and ever," we read the record Daniel made of what the angel told him. Daniel sought to know what was going to come to pass, and he prayed for twenty-one days before the angel got to him. The angel heard him the first time he prayed, but the Prince of Persia blocked his path. Somebody may be blocking the angel of mercy, but let us keep on praying. Daniel was loyal to God, and though he sometimes got into tight places through his loyalty; God took care of him and delivered him. When Daniel knew the king had signed the decree, he went home and prayed as was his custom. Now he might have ducked, but Daniel wasn't the ducking kind. He left his windows open and the blinds up, and though he was placed in the lion's den, God delivered him safe. The man or woman who stands by the Lord and the Lord's cause, may count on him standing by them when the time comes that they need him.

Daniel was a man of prayer and work, and how much this world owes to such men! We need folks who will pray just as much as we need them to preach. We can't pray too much. Another thing, Daniel took life seriously. Some of us never get serious until we come down to die. We need to put first things first, and the church of God is the first thing. When we get to the place where we say to the world "You sing my song or I'll sing a solo, you walk my path or I'll walk alone," then we will become purposeful people. Everyone of us has something to do. It is not only a privilege, but it is a duty. It is our responsibility to see that others get the free salvation that God has given us.

THE NEW Westcott SIX HAS ARRIVED

One Chassis Five Bodies $1590-$2190

NEVER BEFORE has there been a line of motor cars of the light-weight tendency that could be compared with the new Westcotts. This sweeping statement is made without reservation. From tip of radiator to the tire carriers, the Westcott is characterized by originality approaching to boldness in conception, but every line and every curve is held in reserve by an exquisite sense of proportion and good taste.

Closer inspection only adds to the delight of first impressions. The upholstery is all of long grain leather held in place by invisible fasteners. The leg room seems to indicate that the designer was well over six feet tall; yet the adjustable pedals on clutch and brake can be set to bring the foot control within the reach of the tiniest woman. And what a roomy aisle between the two front seats! No trouble at all to pass from front to rear without disturbing the driver or slowing down the car.

THE REAR COMPARTMENT is a delight! Such generous space! Disappearing auxiliary seats that really disappear. Tonneau lights in the rear of the front seats. Robe rails and foot rails and deep, luxurious cushions that invite one to relax and ride, blissfully free from all suggestion of motoring fatigue.

LOOKING FORWARD the eye rests on the solid mahogany instrument board,—a thing of beauty in itself. There are big compartments for gloves and personal effects. All instruments are fastened from beneath, leaving no screws or other attachments to mar the beauty of the board. On the steering wheel all metal parts are of aluminum. The wind-shield is a work of art.

But splendid as are the proportions of this car,—beautiful as are its body appointments,—it is the chassis that places the new Westcott in a class unique.

THE WHEEL BASE IS 125 INCHES,—the length which gives most complete riding comfort, coupled with greatest ease of driving and turning. The frame is of extra duty pressed steel in U-beam construction,—tremendously strong for its weight. Every leaf of every spring is of chrome vanadium steel, practically unbreakable but luxuriously resilient. The axles are the most approved Timken construction with Timken bearings. Firestone Demountable Rims with oversize tires on all four wheels.

THE DELCO TWO UNIT SYSTEM assures absolute efficiency and freedom from troubles with the starting, lighting and ignition. The storage batteries are Willard (120 ampere hour). A Six Cylinder Continental Motor cast in bloc, 5½ bore x 5¼ stroke, delivers a stream of consecutive power impulses practically free from vibration. Speeds from one mile upward to as fast as you will ever dare to drive.

A CENTRIFUGAL PUMP AND FAN, with thermostatic control, keep the water circulating through the cellular radiator so that the motor runs at the same temperature in January as in July. The radiator shell is removable.

THE RAYFIELD CARBURETOR is of an improved type and it is bolted direct to the cylinder block without manifold. One simple regulator operated from the driver's seat makes all carburetor adjustments.

LUBRICATION is kept at constant level by a combination of force feed and splash. The crank case is a solid aluminum casting, saving two-thirds in weight as compared to cast iron.

THE CLUTCH of the new Westcott Six is of the multiple disc type and of an improved design. The foot pedal to the clutch is adjustable to leg length of the driver. Westcott Transmission and Gears are unusually large and strong. The shifting lever is conveniently placed where the right hand of the driver instinctively falls without disturbing the normal driving position.

THE DRIVE is transmitted through a tubular shaft with torque arm and two Spicer Universal Joints. No torque strains on the rear springs even in the hardest driving and braking.

TIMKEN SERVICE AND EMERGENCY BRAKES are of ample dimensions and are provided with equalizers.

A GEMMER SEMI-IRREVERSIBLE WORM AND WHEEL STEERING GEAR holds the car to the road with plenty of allowance for sudden obstructions,—another element of safety that experienced drivers will appreciate.

With a tank that holds 19 gallons of gasoline and the Stewart Vacuum System of largest size, the fuel supply is practically perfect. There is also storage capacity for 1½ gallons of oil.

Standard Equipment

PANTASOTE one-man top with Jiffy Curtains, Cowling, fitting double ventilating, rainproof wind-shield, Shroud Lamps; Oil Pressure Gauge; Warner Speedometer; Warner Electric Clock; Boyce Motometer; large Klaxon with push button in center of steering post; flush Tonnage Lamp; engine-driven Tire Pump; robe rails; foot rail; license holders; spare tire saddle; foot accelerator; Gasoline Gauge and complete tool kit with jack and repair outfit.

Such, in brief, is the new Westcott Motor Car,—a creation of incomparable efficiency, beauty and endurance. The specifications which the factory sent us in advance convinced us beyond doubt or question that this would be the greatest value ever offered to the buyer who is "motor wise". The stock cars exceed even our most optimistic anticipations.

And yet this car is not a "millionaire's car." In price it compares favorably with most of the popular cars of the day. $1,590 for the Roadster or the Five Passenger Touring Car. Only one hundred dollars additional for the Seven Passenger Touring Car. Westcott Springfield Tour-Sedans, $2090 and $2190.

You must see this car. You must judge it in cold-blooded comparison with other cars, without reference to price. You must ride in it and drive in it and put it to every test that you can think of. Call us up for an appointment or visit our showrooms.

Automobile values as at present established are largely due to the foresight and courage of Mr. John N. Willys, the president of this institution.

He foresaw the universal use of the automobile and had the courage to produce quality cars in larger quantities than they had ever before been produced.

Steadily increasing production made possible savings and economies which steadily reduced costs and repeatedly established new values.

Eight years ago, with a net worth of little more than $50,000 this company produced 465 cars.

This year, with a net worth of over $68,000,000 we must produce over 200,000 cars to fill our dealers' contracts.

It has required an enormous investment in plant and equipment to prepare for this enormous production.

The prime requisite in the automobile industry is still foresight and courage.

Mr. Willys foresees a demand this year in excess of the possible supply.

In addition to enormous investment in plant and equipment Mr. Willys had the courage to contract long ago for enormous quantities of raw materials—$35,000,000 worth already in hand for this year's record production.

See all this reflected in the values we have to show you in the most comprehensive line of cars ever built by any one producer.

Note especially the remarkable values represented in the Big Four at $850 and the Light Six at $985.

FOX CHASERS FROM LUCASVILLE ARE READY TO ACCEPT ANY CHALLENGES

"The only trouble with the fellows that are issuing challenges for fox chases," declared John Moulton, of Lucasville, Saturday, "is they never respond when answered."

The gentleman who issued a sweeping challenge not long ago, he says, never answered a letter. This was William Roush of near Otway.

J. A. Bumgarner, Hanging Rock, sent out a challenge Thursday, and that investigations revealed that William Runyon, the alleged gun-user, had crossed the river into Kentucky and had disappeared.

Runyon is charged with shooting Steve Rucker with a shot gun.

Escaped Into Kentucky

The man who so graciously broke into Dr. A. L. Test's garage on the evening of the heavy snow storm and attempted to make away with his Reo automobile, is now asked by the physician to call and get his delapidated old umbrella that he left behind.

Dr. Test's garage was broken into on the same evening that James McGee, colored, confessed, automobile thief, entered seven other garages in the vicinity of Eighth and Gay streets, before finding a car which he could operate.

McGee was captured by the police on Eleventh street. The negro had a Studebaker car belonging to Carl Winkle.

CHILDREN HATE PILLS, CALOMEL AND CASTOR OIL

Give Fruit Laxative When Cross, Bilious, Feverish or Constipated.

"California Syrup of Figs" Can't Harm, Tender Stomach, Liver, Bowels.

Look back at your childhood days. Remember the "dose" mother insisted on—castor oil, calomel, cathartics. How you hated them, how you fought against taking them.

With our children it's different. Mothers who cling to the old form of physic simply don't realize what they do. The children's revolt is well-founded. Their tender little "insides" are injured by them.

If your child's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing, give only delicious "California Syrup of Figs." Its action is positive, but gentle. Millions of mothers keep this harmless "fruit laxative" handy; they know children love to take it; that it never fails to clean the liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach, and that a teaspoonful given today saves a sick child tomorrow.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on each bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. See that it is made by "California Fig Syrup company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

THE MARKETS

NEW YORK STOCKS

FINANCIAL REVIEW

New York, March 10.—The New York Evening Sun financial review to-day says:

There was an aspect of animation and buying initiative in today's short session at the stock market, which is rare in Saturday trading. The impulse sprang from President Wilson's decision to call an extra session of congress and his determination to arm American merchant men. Business was quite spirited at times, and price changes with few exceptions were on the upward side. The steel, copper and shipping shares were in most active demand and advances ranged from 1 to 2 and 3 points. The railroad list was both neglected and narrow. Sentiment throughout securities and financial circles is decidedly cheerful since the publication of the federal reserve board's statement concerning investments in foreign loans.

Following the rush to govern in the early part of the first hour, a movement of doubtless induced by a desire to even up accounts over the week and in anticipation of bullish developments next week, trading subsided and the general list was less forward.

Despite the especially vigorous demand for United States steel the steel and copper shares in general in the latter trading ruled fractionally below the top level of the day. The commodities markets were strong.

New York, March 10.—Responding to the administration decision to arm American merchant men, Marine jumped 1 1/2 points at the stock market opening today. General strength was shown in other issues, with United States Steel touching 112 1/2, an advance of 1/2 over Friday's close. Crucible Steel opened at 68 1/2, up 1/2. General Motors 118 1/2, up 1/2. Central Leather 92 1/2, up 1/2. Utah Copper 216, up 1/2.

The market closed firm. Steel closed at 112 1/2, up 1/2; Marine preferred 70 1/2, up 1/2, and Reading 93 1/2, off 1/4.

TO CONDUCT CONCERTED PEACE CAMPAIGN

Washington, D. C., March 10.—That there is to be a concerted peace campaign conducted in the east by leading peace apostles to avert war in the present acute international situation, was indicated today by the announcement that David Starr Jordan, leading Pacific coast pacifist is on his way to Washington to join other pacifists here. At the headquarters of the American Union Militarism of which Jordan is an executive member, nothing could be learned as to the significance of his trip. The Union, however, is working overtime these days sending out an enormous amount of peace propaganda. Other headquarters of peace leagues are doing the same.

Johnson To Serve As Senator

Sacramento, Cal., March 10.—Governor Hiram Johnson this afternoon branded as "absolutely and unqualifiedly false" a story circulated throughout the country by some newspapers that he would announce on Monday his resignation from the United States senate rather than leave the governorship of California at this time. The story was printed in a number of newspapers, and was circulated in some quarters of New York and Washington. "This is just another Los Angeles Times story, without the slightest shadow of foundation," said the governor.

Oakland
The Sensible Six

Announcement

Bigger, better and more refined is the new model 34—Oakland Sensible Six.

The wheelbase is longer. The body is bigger and more comfortable. Skillful designing has refined the valve-in-head motor into one of high speed type, which without any increase in size develops full forty-one horse power at 2500 r. p. m. Riding quality is greatly improved by the use of long, semi-elliptic springs and the use of larger tires.

Power and beauty and roominess are added in generous measure, yet the new Sensible Six weighs but little more than its predecessor. Refinements have conserved and emphasized its lightness with great strength—its fuel and tire economy—its more than sensible operating cost.

And the price of the new Oakland Six, $875 is also sensible—doubly so when measured against the betterments and improvements which add tremendously to the comfort, convenience, and value of the car.

Oakland Eight Eight—For those who want a big seven-passenger car, Oakland Eight offers the utmost in speed, pulling power and luxurious riding comfort. It has that look of style and distinction—and its lightness and efficiency make its maintenance unusually economical for a car of large and luxurious.

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, trouble, work, etiquette, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, O. Office Phone 60.

gusting and discouraging to work hard on a lawn and then have your work undone by some good-for-nothing hound. Dogs are all right in their place, but that place is not on the lawn of some one who does not own a dog. If they want to scratch they ought to be kept in their own back yards. I'm in favor of a law to have all dogs market. The people who want a dog should have a collar on it with their name on it, and the ones without collars, and all stray dogs ought to be shot.

I hope the bureau will get busy and see that we get rid of 999 dogs within the next few weeks.

We may get rid of stray dogs as long as a bill was passed by the legislature Thursday, providing a heavier tax on dogs, and legalizing the killing of untaxed and unlicensed dogs running at large or found worrying poultry or domestic animals.

Dear Dolly—To settle an argument, please tell me the meaning of the word finbustler.

YOUNG LADY...
A member of the legislature or deliberative body who obstructs or prevents action by the extreme use of dilatory tactics such as speaking merely to consume time.

Dear Miss Wise—Will you please publish in your columns of the Times what a "henpeck" is.

INFORMATION.
To subject to petty or annoying attempts to rule; to harass by exercise of assumed authority; to dominate over—said of a wife who thus treats her husband.

Dear Miss Wise—Didn't England and the United States have trouble similar to that we are having with Germany now, about vessels traveling on the high seas? It seems as though I have a vague recollection of something like that happening during President Jefferson's term of office.

WEST END READER.
England claimed the right of stopping American vessels on the high seas, searching for seamen of English birth and pressing them in the British navy. Accordingly, the British frigate Leopard fired into the American frigate Chesapeake off the coast of Virginia, and her commander going aboard, seized four of the crew, three of whom were Americans by birth. These were taken on the pretense of being deserters.

Dear Dolly—Will you kindly answer the following questions in the Times at your earliest convenience? The curiosity of a few hill top tax-payers would like to know the object of the School Board, in locating the school house (now under construction) at the north-east corner of the cemetery? Do they figure on educating the children now in the cemetery after the resurrection, or where do they expect children to come from? Would it not have been to the credit of said school board and benefit to the hill-top residents had this school been located on the Micklethwait addition near the head of Timmonds avenue.

TAX PAYER.
Respectfully submitted to the School Board.

Dear Miss Wise—Which is the largest of the five great lakes?

School Boy.
Lake Superior contains about 32,000 square miles; Lake Michigan about 24,000; Lake Huron 21,000; Lake Erie 10,815 and Lake Ontario 6,300.

Dear Dolly—How high is the city of Portsmouth above the sea level? Also Ironton, Chillicothe, Jackson and Wellston.

HIGH AND DRY.
Portsmouth is 533 feet at the depot; Ironton is 550; Chillicothe 638; Jackson 735 and Wellston 738 feet.

Dear Dolly—Please tell me how to take old wall paper off the walls.
A Reader.
Soak in warm water and scrape and it will come off in a jiffy. Put the water on with a paste brush. If the paper is very thick you may have to soak it a couple of times.

SOCIETY

W. P. Minego had a birthday today, but we are not telling how old he is. This morning the mail at The Times office was loaded with post-cards of all sorts for W. P. M., who thoroughly appreciated the shower. This evening he will entertain a few friends at his home, 310 Bond street, in his usual princely style, as "Pete" is surely some "prince" at entertaining.

The home of Mrs. Minnie Reed, 1306 Cole avenue, was the scene of a delightful party given in honor of her sister, Miss Alberta Hughes, of High street. Games were played until a late hour, after which a lunch was served. The guests departed, having had a most delightful time. Those present were: Misses Alveria Hughes, Ferol Deaterla, Mabel Goad, Garnet Smith, Alice Ferguson, Clara Gordon and Gladys Kibler; Messrs. John Dixon, Grant Hall, Harold Russell, John Belcher, Arthur Valance and Theodore Riddle.

Pain for Years

"I suffered for years with a pain in my left side and dragging feelings," says Mrs. Sarah Boggs, of Winnipeg, Mo., "and was almost unable to stand on my feet. I couldn't sleep nights, and had smothering spells. Had a pain in my head and back, and I took medicines till I got out of heart. I commenced using Cardui, and I am so much better. Can do my housework and washing now, and walk two miles easily."

CARD-UI

The Woman's Tonic

Card-UI is a medicine for women, made from pure, vegetable ingredients. It has been found of great value as a tonic for women of all ages, and is particularly effective in relieving the aches and pains from which so many women suffer. If you are weak, run-down or nervous, don't get discouraged. Take Cardui, the woman's tonic. With a record of over 50 years of success, isn't it reasonable to suppose Cardui will help you, too? Give it a trial.

Has Helped Thousands.

GERMAN ARRESTED

Chicago, March 10.—A short, stockily built German, believed to be a sailor from one of the interned German cruisers, is under arrest here today.

He was questioned by federal officials and ordered held for further investigation.

The prisoner was identified as "Fritz Wolf," an employee of Albert Pick and Company, Chicago. Whether "Wolf" is his real name, federal officials refused to disclose. They also refused to divulge the reasons for making the arrest.

Injunction Proceedings Are Instituted By Local Jr. O. U. A. M.

Fine Entertainment Is Given By Children At Jewish Temple

Declaring that the officers of the National Council, Junior Order United American Mechanics are not elected by a representative form of government and that an alleged breach of contract had been made by the Sick Benefit and Funeral Beneficiary departments to "avoid certain fraternal insurance enactments and investigations," Portsmouth Council, No. 38, Jr. O. U. A. M. filed injunction proceedings against the National organization in common pleas court Saturday, through Attorneys William R. Sprague and Frank W. Moulton.

On February 27, this year, it is alleged in the petition that the State Council revoked the charter of the local organization for alleged insubordination.

The petition avers that on March 28, 1902 a charter was granted to R. W. Davis and twenty-three others, to be known as Portsmouth Council No. 38 and that the order has now a membership of 260. At first, it is said, a contract was entered into with the Funeral Benefit department wherein, members of the local council were to receive $250. In September, 1912, a new contract was made, in which the members were to participate in the $500 less rather than the $250.

Then to "evade or avoid" disclosure of said investigation (re-fering to certain insurance enactments) and the requirements of said enactments, an attempt was made to change the nature of the contract entered into by the Funeral Benefit department.

It is further alleged that this fund, which amounts to "about $500,000," is "about to be confiscated and forfeited."

On May 16, 1916, charges were filed against William West, a member of the local council, it is said, and that he was ordered expelled, but he entered common pleas court and secured an injunction restraining the carrying out of instructions.

The petition further claims that on February 9, 1917, West received notification that he was no longer a member of the Beneficiary degree or the Funeral benefit department. On February 5, 1917, charges were filed against the local council for alleged insubordination and on February 27, it is said that the charter was revoked.

A restraining order enjoining the national organization from any action contrary to the constitution and against the secretary-manager, enjoining him from declaring members of the local council members not in good standing and it is further asked that these injunction proceedings be made permanent, at the final hearing of the action.

M. B. Cooper, as councillor of Portsmouth Council No. 38, filed the suit.

Applies For Extradition Papers

Application for extradition papers for Frank Watson, who was arrested Friday evening at Roanoke, Va., on a warrant charging him with complicity in the theft of several hundred dollars worth of cattle hides, was made to Governor James M. Cox Saturday by prosecuting attorney Jos. T. Mickelthwait.

Sheriff E. W. Smith will probably go after the young man the first of next week.

Not Guilty

"Not Guilty" was the verdict returned Friday afternoon by the jury which heard the evidence in the case of the State vs. W. C. May, charged with assaulting Christ Schmidt, an aged watchman, at the Ohio State foundry.

Clyde Hendren, who testified in the case, declared that he had struck Schmidt with an intent to rob and that May did not have anything to do with it, except that May accompanied him.

Attorney Arnold C. Schapiro represented the defendant.

The site for the new Ohio river dam, No. 32, which the United States government will construct near Rome, is directly opposite the farm of County Clerk John W. Hall. Mr. Hall stated that the Ohio side of the dam would be built upon his farm. The farm is 24 miles from this city.

Going to New York City

Attorneys Harry W. Miller and Clinton M. Searl expect to leave Sunday for New York City on a short business trip.

Bank Case Appealed.

The Central National bank has appealed its action against R. E. Thomas, secretary of the board of trade, in which judgment for $82 is asked.

The case was recently tried before Squire John W. Byron and judgment was given the defendant. The Central National Bank avers that R. L. Thomas endorsed a check, which was cashed by a stranger, while Thomas declares the signature is a forgery. Milner, Miller & Searl represent the plaintiff, while Bannon & Bannon, the defendant.

Judgment Asked

Judgment for $500 is asked by Lucetta Prater, New Boston, in an action brought in common pleas court Saturday against the village of New Boston.

The plaintiff alleges that on October 14, 1916, she was walking on Rhodes avenue and slipped and fell, dislocating some bones in her right wrist and injuring her chest. The fall was caused, it is alleged, by improper grades of the sidewalk.

Attorneys W. R. Sprague and Frank W. Moulton represent the plaintiff.

Settlement Effected

Settlement between Mr. Sanford, administrator of the estate of Leonard Martin, and the Norfolk & Western railroad, has been made and confirmed by probate court, according to Judge Nate B. Gilliland. The amount agreed upon was $1000.

Martin met his death when a Norfolk & Western passenger train struck the Nauderker & Silex truck and demolished it, killing two men who were riding on the front seat of the car, Wade Gray, being the name of the other victim. The accident occurred at the corner of Eleventh and Gay streets.

Dog His Only Friend.

"I guess my dog is the only friend I have in the world now," declared Lencie Killen, 12, as he affectionately placed his arms around a little dog in probate court Friday afternoon.

Lencie had been sentenced to the Lancaster reform school by Juvenile Judge Nate B. Gilliland on a charge of incorrigibility. He was charged with riding freight trains, swearing, chewing tobacco and playing truant.

"Even my mother deserted me," Lencie said.

Said She Was Abandoned.

were married Sept. 11, 1915. They have one child, Victor M., four months. Attorney Theo. K. Funk represents the wife.

15 Days Granted

The first and final account of Louis Flaker, administrator of the estate of John Dietz, was filed in probate court Saturday. It shows receipts and expenditures of $2,139.41.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

Donald Rhinehart, 21, farmer, Chillicothe to Tobitha, 19, housekeeper. Squire A. J. Finney.

Mrs. C. H. Fultz, who has been ill with measles at the Y. W. C. A., is able to be out. Her nurse, Miss Jennie Jones, was dismissed Friday. Mrs. Fultz expects to go to her home in Vanceburg Monday for a week's stay before resuming work at the Anderson Brothers' Company.

Miss Nora Beatty, who also has been ill with measles at the Y. W. C. A., is able to be out.

Third and Washington streets, gave a play at the Temple Social Center last evening, following the regular services in the Temple.

The time of the play given was at the beginning of the present century and the scene was on the outskirts of a small village in Southern Germany. It was called the "Power of Purim."

The part of Hans was taken by Arthur Rosenblum. Hans begged his parents to be allowed to remain at home when they attended service in commemoration of the Feast of Purim. He finally prevailed and with his three sisters, were left at home. Judith Quas-ser took the part of Mutter Seigel and Maurice Mendel that of Vater Seigel, the parents. Gretchen, their oldest daughter, a motherly little girl who always tried her best to carry out the parents' wishes, was the part played by Florence Bein, while the parts of the little sisters, Fanny and Ruth, were taken by little Mathilda Kline and Helene Goldstein.

The Seigel's nearest neighbor, Frau Globstock, whom the children loved, was represented by Ruth Atlas.

A band of Gypsies played and danced and told the children stories of their happy life, while the "Vater" and "Mutter," were gone, and enticed them away, leaving only the baby girl, whom the parents found asleep on their return. They did not know where to look for the children and despaired of finding them, when Frau Globstock came in and offered to bring them back.

Some people had called a her a witch. She explained that she waved her stick, and shouted the "Power of Purim," three times and predicted dire happenings if the Gypsies did not immediately give up the children. She scorned the Vater for praising the power of Purim for bringing back his children, and said that it is the power of the Lord.

Manuel Rico, head of the gypsy band, was represented by Samuel Kline and Louis Rico, his brother, by Sidney Brown, while Judith Quasner and Ruth Atlas took the parts of Carmen and Isabella, Manuel's daughters.

The children all entered into the spirit of the play with hearty enthusiasm, and a thorough understanding of their parts.

The young people were drilled by Mrs. Henry Atlas and Mrs. Isaac Quasner, and fulfilled the hope of Mrs. Atlas, expressed in her introductory remarks, that all should be given pleasure by the children's efforts.

Mrs. Alfred Goldstein, with Mrs. Atlas and Mrs. Quasner, formed the committee on arrangements for the evening's entertainment. Christian Hansen played two violin solos after the play, and Arnold Schapiro and Samuel Wise gave readings. About 120 persons were present.

"MONEY MAGIC"

Big Vitaphone Feature, "Money Magic" At The Lyric Monday

By the magic power of money she won her consent, built for her a mansion and made of her a queen.

But she was more a daughter to him than a wife.

Slowly he realized his mistaken marriage. Even more pointedly, did he feel it when the handsome Easterner came to the mountains. There he was an invalid, with a young, fascinating wife. Then was this, clean-cut lawyer with a helpless invalid.

Quite naturally, did youth attract youth, and the fires of love kindle in the breasts of both.

What was each to do? Sacred to the marriage tie, true to their pact, it took powerful reserve to hold back their love.

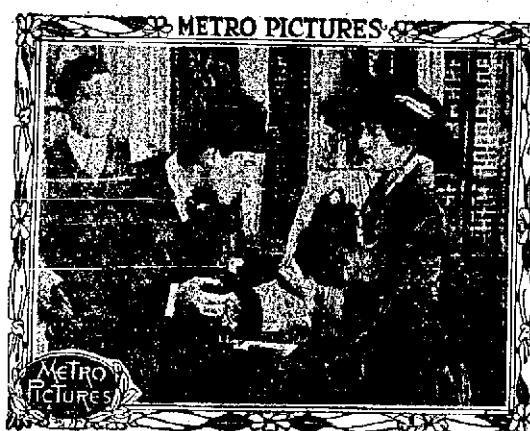

But love did find a way, an unselfish, honorable way, one, which you yourself will sympathize with, when you see this heart melting drama which will hold our interest and attention until the final "fade-out."

make her believe she is wealthy until their orange crop is wiped out by a sudden frost. How Betty realizing this, takes the management into her own hands, and accidentally discovers that her mine is worth a fortune, and goes into the arms of the man whom she loves, is depicted in a careful and delightfully original manner.

Bellefontaine Contest Is Now "Fifty-Fifty"

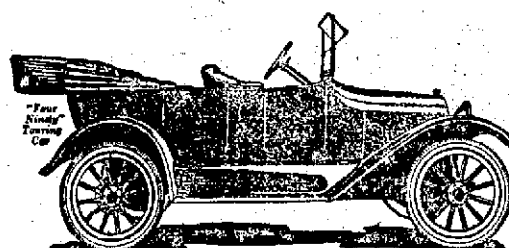

Charles M. Howland, superintendent of the First Christian church Bible school, received the first report concerning the average contest between the local school and Bellefontaine. It was a fifty-fifty report. During January the average attendance at Bellefontaine was 929 against 763 for the local school. However, the first Christians showed the way to the up-staters during February with an average attendance of 1019 against 1007 for Bellefontaine. To win during March it will be necessary for the First Christians of this city to get real busy, die in a large measure to the sorry showing made last Sunday when only 553 were present. The contest runs clear through the year and it is hoped the First Christian will put up a bold front. Tomorrow will be a good time to start. The Jr. O. U. A. M. band will render a concert in front of the church at 8:30 a. m. and this should serve to stimulate the crowd. Come and help make the school a four figure affair. In the evening Rev. Charles R. Oakley will preach his first sermon on "Baptism." His subject will be: "Is Baptism A Saving Ordinance." Services begin promptly at 7 o'clock, and you are most cordially invited to come and hear this subject discussed.

These addresses have been prepared with the purpose of satisfying the deepest needs of your soul. Will you not come and hear them? LASKY-PARAMOUNT

Fannie Ward in "Betty to the Rescue" Paramount at the Lyric Tuesday

Having scored such a pronounced success in "Witchcraft" and "The Years of the Locust," Fannie Ward, the versatile Lasky star, will be seen on Tuesday in the Jesse L. Lasky production "Betty to the Rescue," Beatrice Mille's and Leighton Osmun's

The story was especially written for Miss Ward by these noted photodramatic writers. In "Betty to the Rescue" Miss Ward has a play for which she is unlike anything in which she has ever appeared for the Lasky organization. Instead of the beautiful society matron as she was seen in "The Years of the Locust" the captivating star is now a romping, boydenish tomboy with tousled hair, bare feet and is clad frequently in a dilapidated pair of overalls.

The scenes of "Betty to the Rescue" were laid in the wonderful orange and mining districts of Southern California. Betty's dying father, who has sunk all his money in a mine, leaves her in the care of some friends who Claim War Taxes Levied On German Subjects In The U. S.

New York, March 10.—Federal agents investigating alleged German plots declared they have evidence proving that accredited German agents have been levying war taxes on German subjects in the United States for more than a year. One of these German "assessors" the agents declared, has told them his part in the collection. Millions of dollars, the agents believe, have been collected.

The agents also said they are trying to discover if approximately $5,000,000 collected through bazaars and fairs for the German Red Cross really reached that body. They have reason to believe, they said, that the money has never left the United States. More than $700,000 has been collected in New York alone by this method.

A probe has been started through the secret service of an alleged German lobby in Washington and state capitals, through which legislators are said to have been influenced toward Germany. Sums are declared by the agents to have been spent in this country to procure the election to legislative bodies of persons suitable to the German government.

—RUB YOUR BACK!—

STOPS LUMBAGO

Don't Drag Kidneys! Rub the Pain Right Out With Old "St. Jacobs Oil!"

Back hurt you? Can't straighten up without feeling sudden pains, sharp aches and twinges? Now listen! That's lumbago, sciatica, or maybe from a strain, and you'll get blessed relief the moment you rub your back with soothing, penetrating "St. Jacobs Oil." Nothing else takes out soreness, lameness and stiffness so quickly. You simply rub it on and out comes the pain. It is perfectly harmless and doesn't burn or discolor the skin.

Limber up! Don't suffer! Get a small trial bottle from any drug store, and after using it just once you'll forget that you ever had backache, lumbago or sciatica, because your back will never hurt or cause any more misery. It never disappoints and has been recommended for 60 years. Stop dragging kidneys! They don't cause backache, because they have no nerves, therefore can not

PIMPPLY? WE'LL DON'T BE!

People Notice It. Drive Them Off with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

A pimply face will not embarrass you much longer if you get a package of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The skin should begin to clear after you have taken the tablets a few nights.

Cleanse the blood, the bowels and the liver with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the successful substitute for calomel—there's never any sickness or pain after taking them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do that which calomel does, and just as effectively, but their action is gentle and safe instead of severe and irritating.

No one who takes Olive Tablets is ever cursed with "a dark brown taste," a bad breath, a dull, listless, "no good" feeling, constipation, rapid liver, bad disposition or pimply face.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color.

Dr. Edwards spent years among patients afflicted with liver and bowel complaints, and Olive Tablets are the immensely effective result.

Take one or two nightly for a week. See how much better you feel and look. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

Ten Reo Models--One Reo Quality

REO ENGINEERING is sound engineering. That is now recognized by buyers generally—conceded by other engineers.

REO POLICY is as stable, as sound, and as dependable as is Reo engineering.

THE GOOD INTENT which was the foundation of Reo policy, is still the guiding principle.

REO FACTORY FACILITIES have increased from year to year until now the total area is nearly forty acres—and the Reo factory has long been known in trade circles as "The model automobile plant."

WE REO FOLK make more parts of Reo cars and motor trucks than any other concern in the industry. We believe that statement is 100 per cent true.

IN THE REO LABORATORIES we determine what materials shall constitute every part; here the formulae are worked out—here the tests made to ensure that every pound comes up to the Reo specifications.

THEN WE PUT "Just a little bit more for safety's sake" in every part.

"50 PER CENT OVERSIZE" in every vital part is not a mere catch phrase—compare and you'll find it is a statement of fact.

50% EXTRA STRENGTH is the aim—and we achieve that by using the best of materials and more of them.

NOTHING is left to chance. The Reo guarantee is based not on a guess but on the certainty that the quality is there—determined by the most rigid and painstaking tests.

WE HAVE NEVER BEEN ambitious to make all the automobiles—only the best.

MAKING FEWER WE CAN be more certain of making them better—provided of course, we make enough to enable us to avail ourselves of modern automatic machine tools and the most efficient methods.

THE REO VOLUME long since passed that point.

OUR CHIEF CONCERN now is to see that it does not pass the point where quality gives way to mere quantity considerations—that point where personal supervision gives way to a "system."

BECAUSE OF THAT POLICY there is at this moment, and always has been, an over-demand for Reos of all models.

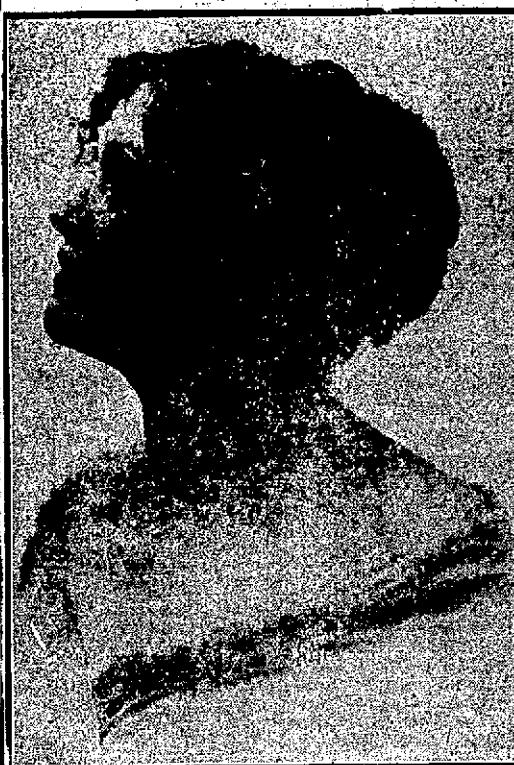

THAT IS WHY the Reo line is so prized—so coveted.

Fifty Prizes Are Offered In Brighter Portsmouth Campaign

The Board of Managers of the Bureau last night went over the final plans for the Brighter Portsmouth Campaign which begins the 1st of April.

The following objectives were agreed upon:

To make the city cleaner and brighter through community cooperation.
To show that much sickness is preventable.
To arouse interest in public health.
To enlist the children in a campaign for cleaner streets and alleys and attractive yards and lawns.

Prizes will be given for:

1. The cleanest individual premises.
2. The cleanest street.
3. The cleanest residence district.

4. The best vegetable garden.
5. The most attractive flower garden.
6. The best story on "How To Keep Well."
7. The best essays of school children.

8. The best "clean-up" work done by Boy Scouts.
9. The cleanest and most sanitary groceries, bakeries and meat markets.
10. The most effective fly extermination.

The state health exhibit will be shown during the week of April 10th and each evening moving pictures will be followed by lectures on health. School children will engage in essay contests. Boy Scouts will help clean up the streets, a sanitary league will work out a plan of sanitation and a committee will be in charge of flower and vegetable gardens. This committee says that 500 vegetable gardens and yards and vacant lots will give a real blow to the "old high cost" of living.

180 people are now organized to serve on the campaign committee under the leadership of Harry Gillen, L. G. Locke, E. C. Hood, W. W. Smith, E. H. Hammer, W. W. Anderson, Samuel Horchow, P. E. Selby, Valen Harold, C. E. Dawling, C. W. Wendelken. The New Century Club has volunteered for the campaign.

The Effective Magnet

"The Effective Magnet." This is the title of a unique and effective sermon which Dr. C. E. Chandler, pastor of the Bigelow Methodist church, will deliver Sunday morning at the regular services.

Is the church nothing more than a load stone to attract and draw wandering people and hold them for a few days, or is it a great magnet, surrounded by the wires of the congregation, through which live current pulsate, drawing and holding and gripping for good? If interested in this, Dr. Chandler's sermon should be heard.

Then on Sunday evening, Dr. Chandler as an unusual message. It is known as "The New Therapeutics," or the "New Medicine." Students of the Bible and church work should not miss the evening services.

An invitation to the public is extended for both services.

NERVOUS SPELLS

A Combination of Troubles Relieved by a Combination of Medicines.

A quotation from one recent letter: "I have been taking Hood's Sarsaparilla and Peppin Pills as a course of medicine and find this combination has worked like a charm. They told me I had neuralgia, and certainly I was in a very low and discouraging state of health. I suffered extremely with nervousness and had neuralgia pains so I was extremely restless and could not sleep nights."

"Those nervous spells were awful! I heard about taking Hood's Sarsaparilla and Peppin Pills—one before meals, the other after—the suggestion struck me favorably so that I have taken the medicines faithfully with pleasing results."

"It is a long time now since I have had one of those severe nervous spells. I can do a good day's housework, can work in my garden and walk a mile." Mrs. Fred J. Weekley, Bagdad, Fla.

SQUELCHING LAFOLLETTE

That eminent copperhead, LaFollette, had staged himself as the farwell orator of the recent session of the senate when the armed ship bill was beaten by his filibuster, expecting to be the central figure, right under the spot light when the gavel fell for the last time. His amiable and patriotic fellow senators, while they could not choke off the filibuster, could choke off the Wisconsin copperhead and they deftly manipulated matters so that LaFollette could not get a hearing and make a splurge for the benefit of the crowded galleries. The Record shows that the senator died hard for two pages are taken up with efforts of LaFollette to get the floor. Finally when he was taunted with his failure he shouted out that he was there to talk and he would like to see any one prevent him. It was but an idle boast for Senator Hitchcock, of Kansas, who was recognized, talked along until 12 o'clock, ignoring LaFollette's repeated attempts to gain a hearing. Many who are distrustful of the Wisconsin senator's honesty of views and who know of his love for the limelight, feel that he was punished far more by being denied the floor at this particular time than he has been since by the storm of popular disapproval, over the action of himself and his associates in preventing the passage of the bill to uphold American honor and vindicate our right to sail the seas unmolested.

Herr Zimmermann, who seems to have been made the official goat of German diplomacy, is fast working himself up into a state of rage at President Wilson because that astute gentleman refused to sit with folded hands while the Imperial German government paraded out this continent among the Greasers and the Japs. Herr Zimmermann now cheerfully declares that if war comes it will be because America wants it, blithely overlooking the slights and insults to America, the plotting of German propagandists against America, to say nothing of the scores of Americans who have been ruthlessly murdered by German submarine commanders.

Columbus city council has passed an ordinance declaring that there shall be a big, well lighted bulletin board placed in front of each house in the city red light district giving the name of the owner of the property, the owner of mortgage on same, if any, and the occupant of the house. And prominent citizens who waxed fat on high rents and held up their hands in holy horror at moral depravity of the town, have since been holding up their hands in wrathful objection to such "infringement upon their rights and liberties under the constitution."

We believe that everyone who witnessed the second inauguration of President Wilson was impressed with the dignity and solemnity of the occasion. The strain of near war with Germany was in the air. It was reflected in the sober faces of the principal actors in the ceremony, in the almost painfully quiet manner in which the crowds gazed upon the spectacle, and in the lines of soldiers extending from one end of Pennsylvania avenue to the other. There was complete absence of that carnival spirit characteristic of inaugurations, there was little cheering. It was a sober-faced, determined, united America that had gathered at Washington, bent on showing the president and the world that America was ready for whatever fate might have in store for her.

Of course it would be the wise, sensible and patriotic thing for him to resign as chairman of the senate foreign relations committee as soon as he is named, but will "Gum Shoe Bill" Stone do it? There is nothing in his history to bear out any such assumption.

We suppose that old Maussel Cutler, who wrote that alluring prospectus of the Scioto company, designed to sell land in this beautiful and virgin valley to innocent French investors some hundred or more years ago would have been our most eminent oil well promoter or gold mine stock buncer had he been alive today.

The man who stands on the First National Bank corner every day in the year, holidays included, says that he listened to two sweet young things for half an hour as they chatted on his corner and he got such an earful of "he says" and "she says" that his face has been hurting him ever since.

Archdeacon Dodson, of the Episcopal church, in a sermon at Chillicothe the other night, said that a lot of men who were counting on getting into Heaven by virtue of their wife's religion were going to be badly fooled. That'll make a lot of sinners sit up and take notice.

Ironton is determined to make those two old rusty, worn-out cannon feel perfectly at home. One of her patriotic citizens, doubtless inspired by the gift of the cannon, has just bought the rusty, worn-out machinery of an old brewery at Wellston, and is moving it to Ironton as fast as steam and the D. T. & L. can carry it.

Huntington thieves may be classed as sui generis, that is they are in a class by themselves. They steal an article and then sell it back at an alluring price to the individual they robbed.

We are told Portsmouth is to have a real automobile club. If it will see to the observance of regulations and prudence on the part of its own members then, indeed, may it be called real. And we understand one of its purposes is to go even further and see the other fellow does the same thing.

A MOVIE IN THREE REELS

We are now enjoying our annual visits from cute little boys and girls who come around every half hour or so to sell us tickets to the First M. E. church musical pageant, and we notice that the price has advanced from 10 to 15 cents per ticket, doubtless because of the demand from war-stricken Europe.—Ohio State Journal.

The Toledo Blade is sure that the firm of Supply & Demand will never dissolve partnership. Nevertheless, as one interested in the firm, we feel like insisting that the head of the firm remain on the job.—Houston Post.

The news reports are determined to spare Villa nothing. The latest dispatches give him a shell wound, double pneumonia, and a German doctor.—New York Evening Post.

It is a sad thought that if a cloture rule passes the senate there will be nothing left for the stifled minority except the chautauquus at $500 a night.—Grand Rapids Press.

We can not agree Tom Lawson is disgusted with the outcome of the leak probe. He played the game for all it was worth and, doubtless, got even more from it than he expected.

Judging from all this newspaper talk one might well conclude that he who raised a single potato became a benefactor to his race.

Just now the unspeakable Turk appears to be the only one that is taking much running exercise.

Lord Kitchener is dead and therefore it is perfectly safe to put the blame for the ill-starred expedition to the Dardanelles upon him. How many of the living, though, would be claiming the glory of it had it but succeeded.

Reading the weather reports we learn how unfortunate several million people are in that they are not living in the Peerless or thereabouts at this particular juncture.

Both Ohio senators are finding many handsome bouquets, in the shape of commendatory resolutions, coming their way these days because they stood by the president.

One thing we could never understand about legislation is that no matter what the character of it be the division thereon is always on partisan lines. It seems to show only one thing certain and that is we could just as well as not get along without ninety-nine hundredths of the legislation we have written into the statutes.

Considering how busy the papers are discovering German plots we do not marvel much at the activity of Germany in hatching them.

TIRED OF IT

(By "G. M.")
 We are tired of being idiotic. It's so blithering silly.

One can be entertainingly brainless up to a certain point, but beyond that one is merely annoying.

We had thought today to diagnose the toy terrier, that nickel's worth of dog with a million-dollar pedigree, which wags a warped lead pencil on one end and sports a nervous nose on the other. But that did not appeal to us.

Then we considered the porcupine, and figured out a fetching line about his being the original apostle of preparedness because he trains his hair for home defense. But we tried it on the office boy, and he didn't laugh, so we set that subject aside. We tried some other things, but they were just as useless.

There are times when even a professional fool can't do a good job of it.

NEW-YORK-DAY-BY-DAY.
O-O-MEINTYRE.

New York, March 10.—Whirling through Manhattan in an automobile. Excavations and heaps of gravel. Sand and stone which would do credit to mound builders. Mazes of pipe lines. Curiously curved sewer passages and blackened pools of water.

Push-carts piled with strange lacos. Persian scarfs and brilliant laced ribbons. Flanked by other carts filled with smoking potatoes or soured herrings.

In the Chinese quarters. Windows heaped with weird vegetables. Blinking Chinese sitting on stoops and puffing at long stemmed pipes. Chinese kiddies playing leap frog. A policeman clapping a pallid dope fiend for being impudent.

A woman, regally rouged and buoyantly bunned, arguing with a waiter in front of a Three Cent Hashery.

Fifth Avenue. Shop windows with millinery lures. Winking electric signs in every direction. Silk hatted clubmen on their way for Scotch and soda. A woman weeping on the steps of the cathedral.

In Harlem. Movies advertised by flaring, blazing posters. Small parks filled with baby carriages and tired looking women. Statues of past glories. Muzzled and lashed dogs out for airings and seemingly as miserable as dogs can be.

In fact every street in New York has some kind of a museum to interest the passerby.

The three most important dramatic agencies are within two blocks of each other. If one stands on the Broadway side of the Knickerbocker it is not a difficult matter to single out the actors who make the rounds of these three offices. They form a steady stream: Young, old, pretty girls. And chorus men. Often the sight is a sad one. Of all the people seeking work the actor gets the least consideration, somehow.

Little Ruth Knott, six year old daughter of Joan Knott, the cartoonist, has accepted the George Washington cherry tree story in its entirety. Some relatives in St. Louis sent her a hatchet for a Washington Birthday memento.

Her father told her the "I never told a lie" story. One hour later she was hacking down an expensive palm in the foyer of the Hotel MacJestie where her parents live.

When taken before her father she said: "I cannot tell a lie, daddy, I did it with my little hatchet." And father did just what any regular father would do. He bought her a box of candy and resolved to wait a while before he told her any more of the popular stories regarding the truly great.

The bread riots have proved a boon to the professional beggars. The other afternoon in front of the Waldorf a house detective noticed a man slink by and toss a crust of bread in the gutter.

He was a gray-haired wreck, and his lips were fringed with lines of perplexity. He looked about him and then disappeared. In about fifteen minutes he came back. His walk was a clumsy, halting shamle.

His hands were twitching and all of a sudden he pounced on the crust of bread and ate it ravenously, while crowds of sympathizers looked on, shocked that such things could be. The house detective turned the beggar over to a Central Office man. At the police station it was found that he had $800 in hills sewed up in the lining of his ragged coat.

A Railroad In The Air
 The Wiessen viaduct on the line from Davos to Pizol, a portion of the Albulah railroad in Switzerland, is one of the highest stone bridges in Europe. It carries the track at the height of 230 feet above the Landwasser river. If even with this altitude it is some three feet less in height than the Solis bridge over the Albulah, it nevertheless surpasses it both in its total length of 659 feet and in the size of its central arch, which has a clear span of 150 feet. Unlike the round arches of the Solis viaduct, which rest upon abutments in the rocks, it is supported by lofty piers of built up masonry independent.

UNITED STATES OFFICIALS PREPARING FOR THE WORST

PROSPECT OF WAR FOLLOWS THE ORDER TO ARM U. S. SHIPS

TO WITHHOLD INFORMATION ON SHIPS

In response to an appeal from Secretary of Navy Daniels asking the press not to make public sailings of any vessels to or from European ports or any information as to details of guns or crews that may be placed on American ships, The Times, along with all other patriotic papers, will refrain from publishing such happenings.

Washington, D. C., March 10.—The United States government is preparing for the worst.

Warned by Germany that she has spoken with finality as to her submarine intent, the government today looked out upon the prospect of actual war, following the order to arm American merchant men.

Some officials fear Germany will be as ruthless toward armed ships as she has been toward enemy merchant men.

Another group of authorities, however, held to the belief that Germany will be more considerate of American shipping—exercising the international law mandate of visit and search before torpedoing.

The government, meantime, is relying upon pan-American co-operation to aid stamping out German intrigues in the western hemisphere, shattering war schemes that would involve the United States near home.

It is understood on highest authority that this government in connection with revealed German intrigues and plotting that stretches from the Canadian boundary through Central America to the southernmost South American country, is considering some kind of pronouncement that is expected to call forth from each of the other twenty American republics an avowal of co-operation in squelching for all time pernicious Teutonic influence in this hemisphere.

Also the government is preparing a "white book" wherein it will reveal Germany's plots. If needed, it probably will be published to stir an already awakened people as to the real danger ahead.

Looming out and above the war cloud, however, is the tremendous possibility that peace may be just around the corner.

Germany is hard pressed for food. The fact is admitted by her leaders. It appears to be a race between war engulfing the two nations and starvation swallowing Germany. The spectre of famine as authorities here see it has in it the potentialities of a speedy peace.

This government itself has no present intention of making a war declaration. Germany must force war if it comes, the president has repeated time and again. Meantime work on armament of American ships proceeds. American merchant ship owners desiring an issue of guns, with navy gunners can obtain them through navy yard commandants.

The navy department has yet to issue instructions, constituting an avowal of policy, as to how gunners shall act, with respect to submarines—whether they shall shoot at sight or wait for an obvious offensive move upon the part of the submarines.

The armament is for defensive purposes only, hence, it is assumed that instructions will be to fire only in real defense.

In view of Germany's oft-repeated plan to sink everything in sight, without warning, it is expected matters will come only too quickly to the point where the United States gunners must act as the allied gunners now do—shoot first and inquire later.

PACIFIST TEACHER RESIGNS POSITION

Toledo, O., March 10.—Scott Nearing, professor in Toledo University, since he was ousted from the University of Pennsylvania, and leader of the pacifist faction in Toledo, has resigned his post as teacher.

Nearing, for several weeks, has been under fire for directing peace meetings here. At the last one, on Sunday night, a message declaring the "right of the people to alter or abolish the government if it no longer represented the people," was sent to President Wilson.

Nearing's resignation is in the hands of the president of the university. The professor finds himself with a light on his hands.

Challenges to debate on patriotism have been hurled from all directions.

But real personality is lower of $700,000 occupation by the federal forces without a fight—would not be surprising, in view of the known plan of the rebels to break up into small bands in their efforts to escape the encircling government troops.

The destruction of property by the rebels now awaiting court martial in Principe penitentiary.

Peru Is Aflame With Rebellion

Buenos Aires, March 10.—Peru is aflame with rebellion of a seriousness not realized until today when information smuggled across the border to evade the strict government censorship detailed the fiercest sort of fighting in Lima, the capital, Cuzco, Callao and Arequipa, in which many persons had been killed and wounded.

The son of Admiral Graus, of the Peruvian navy, has been assassinated.

Peruvian warships have been dismantled by the government to prevent their seizure by the rebels. The government house in Lima is surrounded by a cordon of troops and it is predicted that the president will resign. There is no information obtainable here as to the reason of the outbreak.

LATIN-AMERICAN COUNTRIES WILL NOT TAKE KINDLY TO U. S. PLAN

Buenos Aires, March 10.—If the United States is planning to seek concerted action among all American republics to cleanse the American hemisphere of German activities—as reported in Washington dispatches today—she is likely to be rebuffed hotly.

A majority of the Latin-American republics will resent such a plan. From a reliable source here it was learned today that the Argentine government would be inclined to make "hot answer" if the United States offers "advice" regarding German plotting.

Pan-American unity is not visible from this viewpoint of South America. Several republics are distinctly pro-German. Some of them are pro-ally. Most of them are not pro-United States. With the exception, possibly, of Brazil and Bolivia, Argentine's position on the general question of American matters is held by officials here to represent substantially the attitude of the other Latin-American republics. And Argentina, it will be recalled, was the republic which most unceremoniously rebuffed President Wilson when he asked world neutrals to follow the example of the United States in breaking relations with Germany.

Argentina "regretted such extreme measures" in her note which was drafted by Dr. Diego Molinari. He was likewise the author of the further message to the United States announcing that Argentine's mind was made up and implying that it wouldn't be changed by North American pressure, which was enclosed with the formal note. President Irigoyen personally revised both communications.

North Americans here believe Dr. Molinari to be anti-United States—mainly because he was secretary of the pro-Mexican committee here, opposing American intervention in Mexico. But the fact is Dr. Molinari's views may be taken as typically Latin-American. He believes the United States, perhaps, unconsciously, seeks to use Latin-America to her own advantage.

Brazil and Bolivia are considered exceptions to the general Latin-American view.

Brazil is believed to be looking for an excuse to seize German merchant ships in her harbors.

Bolivia has declared her "solidarity" with the United States. But she is thought to be "under the thumb" of North America. She is credited with aspiring to an outlet on the Pacific ocean and the tributaries of the River Plate. Bolivia just now has no such outlet. The guess is ventured in Buenos Aires that President Wilson's declaration in his peace speech, favoring ocean outlets for all nations had something to do with Bolivia's announcement of "solidarity" with the United States.

The question whether the United States is going to support Bolivia in her ambition for an

BETTER THAN RIDING BEHIND A SNAIL

The winter visitors at Palm Beach are doing all sorts of unheard-of things in order to get their pictures in the papers, but it remained for a visitor at the sister city of Jacksonville to harness an alligator and ride behind it—queer looking animal. The girl who thought of this bright stunt was Miss Charlotte Ehlbeck of New York city.

It is reported that the alligator offered no objections to the new plan. Perhaps this is because of the well known trait of the alligator to be gallant to the ladies. Perhaps also he thought if he could be useful in life he would for a longer time be saved the humiliation of having his hide stripped off and sold to the highest bidder.

Miss Ehlbeck out for a spin as her alligator runabout.

except for a few recent expressions attributed to the influence of new administration which is an Ruy Barbosa, Liberal party leader and the William Jennings Bryan of South America—except that he is no pacifist.

Chile has been advertised in New York and London dispatches as having supported the United States and expressed sympathy for the allies in protesting the German submarine blockade. The best South American judgment is that her "protest" was as perfunctory as Argentine's "regrets."

Chile has no direct war interest, except that the conflict increases demand for her nitrates. As these are bought and paid for before leaving Chile, no South American can believe Chile is worrying much about the German blockade. There is no question that Chile is somewhat pro-German and somewhat anti-United States in her sympathies.

As for the A. B. C. combination, it has now gone up. It never signified much.

Peru has now been heard from. She expressed the opinion that the United States will not have to enter the war.

A Lima dispatch says the Peruvian press "enthusiastically encourages the literary and diplomatic merits" of the recent note.

Spiders Grab 2nd Half Pennant In Masonic Bowling League

Team Will Meet The Giants Next Thursday

These speckled Spiders had the satisfaction last night of walloping the Giant Killers two out of three at the Play House alleys, thereby winning the pennant for the second half in the Masonic Bowling League. The Spiders will now enter the world series with the Giants, their opponents on next Thursday night to decide the championship of the league. The Giants won the first half and the three game series on next Thursday will decide who is who in this class league. The games will start promptly at 8 o'clock and total pins will count. Following the big roll off will come the banquet, which will be held at the Washington hotel on Friday evening, March 23. At least this is the date tentatively decided upon.

On next Thursday all members of the league are requested to assemble at the Play House, where preceding the big series, a short league meeting will be held to arrange for the banquet, which will be one of the best in the history of the league.

President F. W. Sheridan has named the following officials for the big series:

next Thursday: Umpire, William Zollmann; Scorers, Charles Hott and Earl Reinhard. These games will be rolled strictly according to A. B. C. rules, which means the umpire will be absolutely in command of the players and pins.

The line-up for the two teams on next Thursday will be: Spiders: Goodwin, Nodder, Rawson, Malavazos and Talie. Giants: Lemon, Ricker, Baker, Daehler, Wilhelm and Sheridan.

The scores:

Four Teams Enter Boy Scout League

Team entered for 1917: Athletics, Tigers, East End.

All Stars.

The Boy Scout Baseball League was organized last night at Boys' Headquarters for the 1917 season. Four teams sent representatives, and the teams selected for 1917 season will be Athletics, East End, Tigers and All Stars. The Athletics team was represented by Harry Blake, the East Enders by Frank Davis, the Tigers by Clarence Kerner, and the All Stars by Albert Woods. Twelve players were assigned to each team. Every team will be uniformed this season, many of the teams selecting their suits at last night's meeting.

Wetzel Gets Ohio Staters

Charleston, W. Va., March 10.—Boss Wetzel former manager of the Charleston baseball team, will manage the team this season. He has signed Calvert, former Charleston outfielder; Fisher, Portsmouth outfielder; Ferguson, Portsmouth pitcher and Curtis, Charleston infielder.

Pete Herman A Real Champ

New York, March 10.—Pete Gullotta, otherwise known as Pete Herman, is off to a running start in the defense of his acquired title. He is one of the boys to whom the newspaper writers point with pride as a youth, who isn't assuming, wants to fight, and is otherwise an ideal chap.

Whether he'll be able to live a life of fame without getting the swelled head and a consequent reputation for using dollars as a bid is something to be developed in the spring of old man Time. Right now he has it. It is to be hoped he sticks by it.

Pete began this life as a bootblack. Being a native of Italy, he has nothing on several thousand of his countrymen who are sliding their way to fame in the land of the free and the home of the brave.

There was a bad, though, bold character in New Orleans, where Pete gathered in the nickels, who used to come around about once a week and make collections of nickels and dimes off the bootblacks. They all paid up like the men—Pete included.

One day Pete decided he wanted all the money he made for his very own, and he laid for the youth, who came around after the dimes. He refused to shell out, with the result that the youth caught Pete one on the chin and nearly pulverized him. When Pete came to he brushed his clothes, started down the street, and when he found said youth he commenced to fight. The youth of the dime and nickel collection was sent to a hospital. From that time on Pete had his nickels and dimes and a fighting reputation. The latter was so good he decided to put it to use, which he did with such success that he has towered over the others in his class to the extent that he now is champion.

Herman is just 21. He has been fighting six years. He stands 5 feet 2 inches and weighs 116 pounds right along. Some day—off in the future—Pete is going to have a cafe in New Orleans. Also, on top is going to be a gymnasium.

CHAMPION LADY TRAPSHOOTER NOW RANKS WITH THE COUNTRY'S LEADING MALE STARS

Mrs. Ad Topperwein.

Mrs. Ad Topperwein of San Antonio, Texas, is far and away our leading woman trapshooter and perhaps the best trap shot in the country, male or female. Mrs. Topperwein has accomplished the amazing feat of shooting 2,000 targets in five hours and twenty minutes and breaking 1,952. No man has ever shot 2,000 targets in one day and none has ever approached Mrs. Topperwein's wonderful score. Ice water was used on her gun when it became so hot that her hands were badly blistered after the five hours of shooting.

Main Bouters In Fine Shape For Fight Here

Final arrangements have been completed for the second series of boxing matches the J. O. U. A. M. band will stage in their hall, 613 Chilliote street next Tuesday night.

Charles Anderson, ex-prizefighter, who is making the matches for the band will again act as referee, his services at the last fight being eminently satisfactory.

The next bill is a rattling good one and should be witnessed by 500 or 600 fight fans.

Where Will Cardinals Finish?

St. Louis, March 7.—There are the same old disappointments, the same old rocks, and the same old second division finish ahead for the St. Louis Cardinals. Nothing else can be said.

The team, if anything, is weaker this year than last, which is saying considerable.

Miller Huggins has some good ball players running around for him. There is Roger Hornsby, the amazing youth who disputed the batting championship of the National league last year.

There is Willie Daak and there is Mule Watson. Both are excellent pitchers. But they can't win a pennant by themselves, nor with the help of the crew that is helping.

First base seems to be just as much of a problem as ever for Huggins, with the probability that Butler and Snyder will alternate on the job just as in former days. Belzer or Butler for second base. Hornsby or Miller for shortstop, and Hornsby or Butler for third base seems to be about all that can be said for the infield.

Miller, Wilson and Bob Bescher, none of whom has knocked the populace off with his antics for some years, are carded for outfield duty.

The catching staff is nothing to get those over. With Snyder and Gonzalez to do the bulk of the work.

In the pitching staff and there alone seems to be any fame that the Cardinals may lay claim to. Willie Daak is a real star. If he is in the top form he will win a lot of ball games and he will have plenty of help from Lee Meadows, midget star, and Mule Watson, the long recruit from Texas.

Tyrus Cobb Is Hunting

Wexahachie, Texas, March 10.—Manager Jennings received word today from Tyrus Cobb that he would report in about two weeks. The Peach is now packing a gun over the Carolina hills as a preliminary conditioning stunt.

Bobby Roth Has Signed

Chicago, March 10.—Outfielder Bobby Roth of the Cleveland Americans, who has been holding out, signed a contract after a conference here today with James Dunn, owner of the club. Roth will leave for the training camp at New Orleans Saturday. He was granted an increase in salary.

BATTLING REDDY IS CHASING FEATHERS

Battling Reddy.

Battling Reddy, New York bantam-weight fighter, is now anxious to clean up the featherweight class and will fight anyone in the world up to 122 pounds, except Johnny Kilbane, who, Reddy says, is untouchable.

Reddy has licked most of the best bantams and would like to fight Memphis Pal Moore again.

DENTISTS FORMULA

VEGETABLE CALOMEL

Vegetable calomel, extract of the root of the old-fashioned may-apple plant, does not salivate. As a liver stimulant, it's great. It's a perfect substitute for ordinary calomel (mercury); in fact, it's better, because its action is gentle instead of severe and irritating—and it leaves no mean, disagreeable after-effects. Physicians recognize this and prescribe may-apple root (podo-glycin, they call it) daily.

Combined with four other standard, all-vegetable remedies, may-apple root may now be had at most any drugstore in convenient sugar-coated tablet form by asking for Sentinel Laxatives. If you forget the name, ask for the box that has the picture of the soldier on it.

These tablets are small, easy to take and are really wonderful little performers.

They quickly clean out the poisons that are causing you headache, constipation, upset stomach, biliousness, dizzy spells, bad breath and coated tongue.

They are mild. They never gripe. And they are a bowel tonic as well as a cleanser and liver regulator. A 10c box should last you several weeks. A Physician's trial package (or dozen) will be mailed you free if you write mentioning this advertisement. The Sentinel Remedies Co., 802 Madison Ave., Covington, Ky.

SQUELCHING LAFOLLETTE

That eminent copperhead, LaFollette, had staged himself as the preeminent orator of the recent session of the senate when the armed ship bill was beaten by his filibuster, expecting to be the central figure, right under the spot light when the gavel fell for the last time. His amiable and patriotic fellow senators, while they could not choke off the filibuster, could choke off the Wisconsin copperhead and they deftly manipulated matters so that LaFollette could not get a hearing and make a splurge for the benefit of the crowded galleries. The Record shows that the senator died hard for two pages are taken up with efforts of LaFollette to get the floor. Finally when he was taunted with his failure he shouted out that he was there to talk and he would like to see any one prevent him. It was but an idle boast for Senator Hitchcock, of Kansas, who was recognized, talked along until 12 o'clock, ignoring LaFollette's repeated attempts to gain a hearing. Many who are distrustful of the Wisconsin senator's honesty of views and who know of his love for the limelight, feel that he was punished far more by being denied the floor at this particular time than he has been since by the storm of popular disapproval, over the action of himself and his associates in preventing the passage of the bill to uphold American honor and vindicate our right to sail the seas unmolested.

Herr Zimmermann, who seems to have been made the official goat of German diplomacy, is just working himself up into a state of rage at President Wilson because that astute gentleman refused to sit with folded hands while the Imperial German government paraded out this continent among the Greasers and the Japs. Herr Zimmermann now cheerfully declares that if war comes it will be because America wants it, blithely overlooking the slights and insults to America, the plotting of German propagandists against America, to say nothing of the scores of Americans who have been ruthlessly murdered by German submarine commanders.

Columbus city council has passed an ordinance declaring that there shall be a big, well lighted bulletin board placed in front of each house in the city red light district giving the name of the owner of the property, the owner of mortgage on same, if any, and the occupant of the house. And prominent citizens who waxed fat on high rents and held up their hands in holy horror at moral depravity of the town, have since been holding up their hands in wrathful objection to such "infringement upon their rights and liberties under the constitution."

We believe that everyone who witnessed the second inauguration of President Wilson was impressed with the dignity and solemnity of the occasion. The strain of near war with Germany was in the air. It was reflected in the sober faces of the principal actors in the ceremony, in the almost painfully quiet manner in which the crowds gazed upon the spectacle, and in the lines of soldiers extending from one end of Pennsylvania avenue to the other. There was complete absence of that carnival spirit characteristic of inaugurations, there was little cheering. It was a sober-faced, determined, united America that had gathered at Washington, bent on showing the president and the world that America was ready for whatever fate might have in store for her.

Of course it would be the wise, sensible and patriotic thing for him to resign as chairman of the senate foreign relations committee as soon as he is named, but will "Gum Shoe Bill" Stone do it? There is nothing in his history to bear out any such assumption.

We suppose that old Manasseh Cutler, who wrote that alluring prospectus of the Scioto company, designed to sell land in this beautiful and virgin valley to innocent French investors some hundred or more years ago would have been our most eminent oil well promoter or gold mine stock buncer had he been alive today.

The man who stands on the First National Bank corner every day in the year, holidays included, says that he listened to two sweet young things for half an hour as they chatted on his corner and he got such an earful of "he says" and "she says" that his face has been hurting him ever since.

Archdeacon Dodson, of the Episcopal church, in a sermon at Chillicothe the other night, said that a lot of men who were counting on getting into Heaven by virtue of their wife's religion were going to be badly fooled. That'll make a lot of sinners sit up and take notice.

Ironton is determined to make those two old rusty, worn-out cannon feel perfectly at home. One of her patriotic citizens, doubtless inspired by the gift of the cannon, has just bought the rusty, worn-out machinery of an old brewery at Wellston and is moving it to Ironton as fast as steam and the D. T. & I. can carry it.

Huntington thieves may be classed as sui generis, that is they are in a class by themselves. They steal an article and then sell it back at an alluring price to the individual they robbed.

We are told Portsmouth is to have a real automobile club. If it will see to the observance of regulations and prudence on the part of its own members then, indeed, may it be called real. And we understand one of its purposes is to go even further and see the other fellow does the same thing.

We are now enjoying our annual visits from cute little boys and girls who come around every half hour or so to sell us tickets to the First M. We can not agree Tom Lawson is disgusted with the outcome of the leak probe. He played the game for all it was worth and, doubtless, got even more from it than he expected.

One thing we could never understand about legislation is that no matter what the character of it be the division thereon is always on partisan lines. It seems to show only one thing certain and that is we could just as well as not get along without ninety-nine-hundredths of the legislation we have written into the statutes.

Considering how busy the papers are discovering German plots we do not marvel much at the activity of Germany in hatching them.

NEW-YORK-DAY-BY-DAY BY O. O. MCINTYRE.

New York, March 10.—Whirling 'she was hacking down an expensive palm in the foyer of the Hotel Ma. Excavations and heaps of gravel. Sand and stone which would do credit to mound builders. Mazes of pipe lines. Curiously curved sewer passages and blackened pools of water.

Push-carts piled with strange faces. Persian scarfs and brilliant lured ribbons. Flanked by other carts filled with smoking potatoes or soured herrings.

In the Chinese quarters. Windows heaped with wicker vegetables. Blinking Chinese sitting on stools and puffing at long stemmed pipes. Chinese kiddies playing leap frog. A policeman slapping a pallid dope fiend for being impudent.

A woman, regularly rouged and buoyantly bunned, arguing with a waiter in front of a Three Cent Boshory.

Fifth Avenue. Shop windows with millinery hros. Winking electric signs in every direction. Silk latched cluemen on their way for Scotch and soda. A woman weeping on the steps of the cathedral.

In Harlem. Movies advertised by flaring, blazing posters. Small parks filled with baby carriages and tired looking women, statues of past glories. Muzzled and leashed dogs out for airings and seemingly as miserable as dogs can be.

In fact every street in New York has some kind of a museum to interest the passerby.

The three most important dramatic agencies are within two blocks of each other. If one stands on the Broadway side of the Knickerbocker it is not a difficult matter to single out the actors who make the rounds of these three offices. They form a steady stream. Young, old, pretty girls. And chorus men. Often the sight is a sad one. Of all the people seeking work the actor gets the least consideration, somehow.

Little Ruth Knott, six year old daughter of Jean Knott, the cartoonist, has accepted the George Washington cherry tree story in its entirety. Some relatives in St. Louis sent her a hatchet for a Washington Birthday memento. Her father told her the "I never told a lie" story. One hour later

When taken before her father she said: "I cannot tell a lie, daddy. I did it with my little hatchet." And father did just what any regular father would do. He bought her a box of candy and resolved to wait a while before he told her any more of the popular stories regarding the truly great.

The bread riots have proved a boon to the professional beggars. The other afternoon in front of the Waldorf a house detective noticed a man slink by and toss a crust of bread in the gutter.

He was a gray-haired wreck and his lips were fringed with lines of perplexity. He looked about him and then disappeared. In about fifteen minutes he came back. His walk was a clumsy, halting shambling.

His hands were twitching and all of a sudden he pounced on the crust of bread and ate it ravenously, while crowds of sympathizers looked on, shocked that such things could be.

The house detective turned the beggar over to a Central Office man. At the police station it was found that he had $500 in bills sewed up in the lining of his ragged coat.

TIRED OF IT

(By "G. M.")
We are tired of being idiotic. It's so blithering silly. One can be entertainingly brainless up to a certain point, but beyond that one is merely annoying.

We had thought today to diagnose the toy terrier, that nickel's worth of dog with a million-dollar pedigree, which wags a warped lead pencil on one end and sports a nervous nose on the other. But that did not appeal to us.

Then we considered the porcupine; and figured out a fetching line about his being the original apostle of preparedness because he trains his hair for home defense. But we tried it on the office boy, and he didn't laugh, so we set that subject aside. We tried some other things, but they were just as useless.

There are times when even a professional fool can't do a good job of it.

A Railroad In The Air
The Wisconsin viaduct on the line from Davos to Fällur, a portion of the Albulah railroad in Switzerland, is one of the highest stone bridges in Europe. It carries the track at the height of 299 feet above the Landwasser river. If even with this altitude it is some three feet less in height than the Solle bridge over the Albula, it nevertheless far surpasses it both in its total length of 660 feet and in the slow of its central arch, which has a clear span of 180 feet. Unlike the round arches of the Solle viaduct, which rest upon abutments in the rocks, it is supported by lofty piers of built up masonry.—Independent.

DAM AND LOCK NO 32 TO BE BUILT NEAR ROME, O.

Official announcement was made in Cincinnati Friday of the final location of locks and dam to be known as lock No. 32, at the close of a protracted session of the Ohio river board of United States engineers in session at the Federal building there.

The locks and dam in question will be built at a point near Rome, O. about 21 miles below Portsmouth.

This government operation will be one of special interest, nearly completing the system maintaining a permanent 9-foot river stage between Pittsburgh and Cincinnati.

The board of engineers, after much deliberation, decided upon the Rome (O.) location as best fitted for the purpose.

A special from Cincinnati says: "The near-completion of the up-the-river locks and dam at New Richmond, O., together with the decision arrived at here, occasioned special congratulatory among river shippers and West Virginia and Pennsylvania coal mine operators, who hail the early completion of the Ohio river Federal improvements on account of the now expected early solution of the coal shipping situation, precluding, they say, future serious coal famines."

Dam No. 31 is being built three miles below this city by Sheridan and Kirk of this city. With many low water stages in the Ohio this year, the dam would be completed, it was stated Saturday.

Man's instinctive and perfectly reasonable preference for reputation delivered in private is illustrated by a story told by Lieutenant General Sir William Butler, G. C. B., in his autobiography.

Don't Drug Kidneys! Rub the Pain Right Out With Old "St. Jacobs Oil!"

Back hurt you? Can't straighten up without feeling sudden pains, sharp aches and twinges? Now listen! That's lumbago, sciatica, or maybe from a strain, and you'll get blessed relief the moment you rub your back with soothing, penetrating "St. Jacobs Oil." Nothing else takes out soreness, lameness and stiffness so quickly. You simply rub it on and out comes the pain. It is perfectly harmless and doesn't burn or discolor the skin.

Lumber up! Don't suffer! Get a small trial bottle from any drug store, and after using it just once, you'll forget that you ever had backache, lumbago or sciatica, because your back will never hurt or cause any more misery. It never disappoints and has been recommended for 60 years. Stop druging kidneys! They don't cause backache, because they have no nerves, therefore can not cause pain.

Special accommodations will be made at the stores to take care of those who desire to purchase. There will be bargains and real ones. Spring Opening this year will be a decided change for those of former years.

New Law Provides That County Auditor Shall Assess Real Estate

County Auditor S. D. Eckhart received a copy of the new law Saturday. It is provided in this measure that the county auditor shall be the assessor of real estate and he is empowered to employ assistants.

The new law provides the following:

Under the new law passed by the senate practically as reported by the joint committee on taxation, and by the house on March 6, with some amendments in which the concurrence of the senate is necessary, the county auditor is made the assessor of real estate in his county. On or before the second Monday in April, 1917, he shall ascertain whether the real property in each township, village, ward or assessment district is assessed for taxation at its true value in money, as the same now appears on his tax list. If he finds that it is so assessed, he shall, subject to the following provisions, enter such valuation upon the tax list for the current year.

He shall submit his finding as to the valuation of such real estate to the county commissioners and said board shall, at a hearing fixed within not less than ten days, nor more than twenty days thereafter, confirm, modify or set aside the same by an order entered on their journal. Notice of such hearing shall be given in one newspaper of general circulation in the county. If the county commissioners determine that the real estate in any subdivision is not on the duplicate at its true value, then the auditor shall proceed to assess the same. He is also required to make such assessment upon the petition of not less than 25 freeholders, a board of township trustees or the council of the village, such petition to be filed at any time after January 1st, but not later than the fourth Monday in April, 1917. The old provisions as to lists of real estate, maps, plat books, etc., are repealed.

The auditor is empowered to employ expert assistants, clerks, etc., the amount to be expended in the payment of their compensation to be fixed by the county commissioners and paid out of the general county fund on warrant of the county auditor. If the commissioners fail to provide a sufficient amount, application for an additional allowance may be made to the common pleas court, and the allowance of such court shall be final. If funds for this purpose are not available for this year the commissioners may borrow the amount so required, and issue certificates of indebtedness therefor.

The board of revision will consist of the county treasurer, county auditor and president of the board of county commissioners. The auditor is the secretary, and may convene the board as often as necessary during any year. The board of revision shall hear and determine complaints pending from last year.

Appraisal of Personal Property
Following is the general plan for the appraisal of personal property:

Blanks shall be mailed to each taxpayer or left at convenient places in each taxing subdivision, notice thereof being given in one newspaper of general circulation in the county. Each person is required to list all his or her personal property as of the day preceding the second Monday in April, within 15 days thereafter, and deliver the same to the county auditor by May 1st. Failure to do so deprives the taxpayer of his $100 exemption, and willful failure or refusal to make return subjects him to a 50 per cent penalty.

The auditor shall examine the returns, and after giving notice to the person listing, may make corrections thereof, and he may examine the returns with the assessors, who shall meet for instructions on the first Monday of May, and if they believe any property is omitted or valued incorrectly, the assessor shall call upon the person listing and assess his property. Assessors shall also call upon and list the property of all persons who have failed to make returns to the county auditor. Assessors will have no services to render prior to May 1st, except to administer the oath to such persons as apply to them for that purpose.

Blanks for the assessment of personal property are under way, and sample forms will be forwarded to county auditors as soon as they can be printed.

HERE'S NEW SIDE OF THE WAR—WOMEN RECRUITS FOR BRITISH ARMY SERVICE

Women recruits being instructed in various branches of cooking. For the first time women have been accepted for military service. The recent announcement of the British government that women would be accepted as cooks and waitresses for the army has met with ready and willing response. Already a large number of girls are in training at the special center at Dartford and when they have completed their general course of military cooking and waiting they will be sent to different camps.

THE ALL SAINTS BROTHERHOOD

All members of All Saints Brotherhood for men are reminded that this organization meets every Sunday morning in the office of the rector on Fourth street, and that it has been the rule of the members to attend the meetings regularly during the Lenten season, even if some of them fall from grace at other times. We are desirous of seeing some of you men who have been conspicuous by your absence, and now is the time for reformation and amendment. Let us have a larger attendance than we have had this year, on Sunday morning. The rector will lecture on that most interesting character: "Julian the Apostle." He was the last great champion of Paganism, and in spite of this rather disconcerting fact was not altogether bad. Come and hear all about him. Yes, the class meets as usual at 9:30 a. m. and lasts one hour.

BEN HURS INITIATE, TO PRODUCE PLAYLET

An enthusiastic meeting of the Tribe of Ben Hur was held Friday evening when a class of candidates were initiated. After the lodge meeting the doors were thrown open to all those holding invitations to the Thursday night dances, the committee in charge showing their appreciation of the regular Thursday night attendants. Dancing started at 10:30 o'clock. With Journey's Trio furnishing the music. The new members initiated were Paris Patrick, Glen Liles, Richard Cook, William Bromley, Clarence Bromley, Mrs. Ray Dobbin, Mrs. Mollie Williams and Miss Bonner Smith.

Next Friday night the lodge will hold an open meeting, when the lodge members will present a comedy playlet, "Teacher May I Go Home?"

Watch Your Pep.
Pep is a slang word invented to convey the idea of those who are always up and about, who are full of "ginger," who never go to sleep at the switch. When you are full of pep you can go a long way toward doing almost anything. But pep runs out. If your stomach crows back on you because you don't know how to take care of it, if you consort with weak minded people, taking on the color of their weak mindedness; if you burn the candle at both ends, then your pep runs low. Watch your pep.—Life.

LIFE'S CRUCIBLE.
It was said of Odierot that in his invariable optimism he was like one of the old alchemists, who always found gold in his crucible because he had first put it there. That is what the wise man, the instructed soul, learns to do, for life boils always of what we ourselves put into it.

George Carroll Heads The Local Rifle Club

Three applications were received at the meeting of the Portsmouth Government Rifle Club in the Board of Trade rooms, Masonic Temple, last evening, at which the annual election of officers took place.

The new president is George S. Carroll; vice-president, John Skelton; secretary, George P. Shute; treasurer, Wesley Griver. On the executive committee are Arthur H. Bannon, chairman; and George Holman, John Skelton and Emil Arthurs. The twenty members present discussed plans for increasing membership.

Fifty-seven are enrolled and any one over 16 may join by paying a membership fee of $1.50 and annual dues of $1.50.

The rifle range is on Bannon Hill back of Kinney's Lane. Plans for an indoor range were also discussed.

GOVERNOR WAS GLAD TO MEET BUSINESS MEN

While attending the annual convention of the Ohio Retail Drygoods Association at Columbus Tuesday and Wednesday, W. W. Anderson says that the members of that organization enjoyed a visit to the offices of Governor James M. Cox.

At a certain hour steam sirens and bells will announce the advent of the Spring Opening. Promptly at the first sound show windows will be unveiled to the gaze of the public.

The River City band has been engaged to enliven the occasion.

Stores will be opened for the inspection of the public. Goods will be tastefully displayed in all departments.

Things of interest to men, women, boys and girls will be there.

Friday and Saturday will be known as "Selling Days." These days are expected to attract visitors for a radius of thirty miles. For this occasion special accommodations will be made at the stores to take care of those who desire to purchase. There will be bargains and real ones.
